COURSE INFORMATION SHEET

University: Catholic University in Ružomberok
Faculty: Faculty of Education
Course code: KPVZ/Tj-BD123A/22	Course title: Teaching Practice
Type and range of planned learning activities and teaching methods: Form of instruction: Seminar Recommended study range: hours weekly: 1 hours per semester: 13 Teaching method: on-site
Credits: 2	Working load: 50 hours
Recommended semester/trimester: 5.
Level of study: I.
Prerequisites:
Requirements for passing the course: Verification of the degree of acquisition of the relevant knowledge, skills and competences of the student is carried out on the basis of theoretical and practical examinations during the semester teaching of the subject. During the semester, the student will take part in 10 Italian language lessons taught by a trainee teacher in a primary or secondary school. During this period, he/she keeps a pedagogical diary in which he/she records the theoretical knowledge imparted in the field of Italian language and the didactic and pedagogical practices of the trainee teacher. With the trainee teacher, he/she analyses the lessons in which he/she has participated (this is done in groups). The trainee teacher gives the student an assessment which represents 60% of the mark. The student's work discipline and behaviour, cooperation with the trainee teacher, educational performance, the student's linguistic expression, interest in learning about the school environment and attitude towards the teaching profession are evaluated. The student shall prepare a report of each lesson where he/she evaluates the teacher's performance. These documents, as well as the preparation of pedagogical logs and lesson analyses with the trainee teacher, are used by the practice methodologist for the final evaluation of the student in the 40% range. Course evaluation: A - 100%-93% B - 92%-85% C - 84%-77% D - 76%-69% E - 68%-60% Fx - 59%- 0%
Learning outcomes of the course: Course Objective: The aim of the course is to teach the student to observe the educational process, then to make an analysis of the lesson and to process it in the pedagogical diary. After completing the course, the student will acquire the following knowledge, skills and competences: - the student is able to observe, analyse and record in the hospital records and pedagogical diaries the pedagogical and psychological aspects of the educational process.

- The student is able to observe the teacher's work in the lesson, the work and the curriculum, the choice of methods and means and also the level of management of the pupils' learning and cognitive activity.
- The student is able to make an analysis of the lesson in cooperation with the trainee teacher. The student can analyse the lessons and independently draw up a pedagogical diary.

Course contents:

Brief outline of the course:

- The student is familiarized with the necessary documentation required to enter the training school and the conditions for completing the internship
- The student will become familiar with the environment of the training school and the trainee teacher, and will establish a schedule for the practice.
- The student will participate in 10 Italian language lessons taught by a trainee teacher in a selected primary or secondary school.
- The student observes the educational process in a comprehensive form,
- The student observes the conditions in the school, focuses on the pedagogical documentation and describes the observed phenomena in a pedagogical diary.
- The student, together with the trainee teacher, analyses the lessons
- The student draws up protocols of each lesson, where he/she also evaluates the activity of the trainee teacher
- The student submits the pedagogical diary prepared according to the requirements of the trainee teacher and the practice methodologist.
