COURSE INFORMATION SHEET

University: Catholic University in Ružomberok
Faculty: Faculty of Education
Course code: KKPT/Nv-MD100C/22	Course title: Biblical Greek 1
Type and range of planned learning activities and teaching methods: Form of instruction: Seminar Recommended study range: hours weekly: 1 hours per semester: 13 Teaching method: on-site
Credits: 1	Working load: 25 hours
Recommended semester/trimester: 1.
Level of study: II.
Prerequisites:
Requirements for passing the course: Verification of the degree of acquisition of the relevant knowledge, skills and competences of the student is carried out on the basis of theoretical and practical examinations during the teaching period. During the semester, the student demonstrates his/her theoretical knowledge of the subject content in the form of four written tests. The student demonstrates practical skills regularly in class work and in the completion of homework. The student demonstrates proficiency in reading biblical texts written in the koine dialect during the examination period. In the case the instruction will be conducted by distance learning, the verification of knowledge and skills will be done through video calls (MS Teams). Tests and homeworks will be sent to the student electronically and then submitted to the instructor electronically. Evaluation will be done orally during classes. The marked tests will be available for viewing by the instructor. Final assessment: written tests (76%), active work of the student in class (12%), homework (12%). Successful completion of the course is dependent on passing an oral test verifying proficiency in reading of the Greek text. Course evaluation: A - 100%-93% B - 92%-85% C - 84%-77% D - 76%-69% E - 68%-60% Fx - 59%- 0%
Learning outcomes of the course: The aim of the course is to provide basic theoretical knowledge of the rules of reading, selected grammatical categories of Biblical Greek (inflection of nouns and verbs in the present tense; adjectives, personal and possessive pronouns), and to impart key practical skills for autonomous work with New Testament texts written in the Koine dialect, as well as with literature in the field of biblical studies. Learning outcomes (knowledge, skills and competences): - students know the Greek alphabet and the rules for reading Biblical Greek;

- students have an overview of the basic grammatical phenomena of Biblical Greek (inflection of nouns of 1st and 2nd declension; inflection of verbs in the present tense; adjectives and their function; personal and possessive pronouns);
- students are familiar with the basic vocabulary of Biblical Greek;
- students can read any New Testament text written in Biblical Greek;
- students can recognize the basic grammatical phenomena of Biblical Greek (cases of nouns in the 1st and 2nd declensions; the different categories of verbs in the present tense; adjectives; personal and possessive pronouns);
- students are able to translate simple sentences from Biblical Greek into Slovak;
- students are capable of working independently with specialist literature in the field of biblical studies.

Course contents:

1. A brief history of Ancient Greek (koine dialectos);
2. Greek alphabet, rules of pronunciation and reading;
3. Noun and definite article;
4. The declension of nouns of the II. declension;
5. The verb "to be";
