Prerequisites:
Requirements for passing the course: The study is focused on research and development of (one) specific topic according to the student's choice. At the individual exercises, the student tries to define his own art program, looking for a unique and individual way of solving ten set tasks so as to achieve a comprehensive and unified author's statement in both formal and content terms. The most important condition for completing the course is the documentation of creative (artistic-pedagogical) research arising as a series of individual, consecutive steps under the guidance of the providing teacher. Submission of finished works of art and assessment of their quality in the final evaluation is not accepted without the above research. For each of these tasks, photographic documentation must be prepared for each teaching unit, as an important part of the pedagogical process in joint presentations or consultations. For the final evaluation, the student submits the required amount - 10 tasks, which were created gradually, as a result of the pedagogical process in ten compulsory exercises. Therefore, it is not possible to combine the set exercises into larger units and thus reduce the prescribed number of consultations with the teaching teacher. The condition for the final evaluation of the course is also the completion and submission of all ten sub-tasks with a minimum grade of "E" - no task can be missing or be graded "FX".
Learning outcomes of the course: The aim of the course is to acquire theoretical and practical knowledge and skills in the field of plastic art disciplines of the second half of the 20th century. Mastery of individual concepts, approaches and procedures, search and creative, artistic development of individual visual forms and artistic means of expression. Learning outcomes: - acquire abilities, knowledge and skills for independent creative pedagogical work in the field of study of fine arts teachers - to master and develop the concepts of art education methodology for the student's pedagogical practice. - build on theoretical knowledge from Plastic Art Disciplines 1.2 from the previous study - continue to systematically deepen knowledge in the field of art education methodology related to the field of art language, grammar of visual forms, expressive elements, means and regularities of construction of works of art

For the final evaluation, the student submits the required amount - 6 tasks, which were created gradually, as a result of the pedagogical process in ten compulsory exercises. Therefore, it is not possible to combine the set exercises into larger units and thus reduce the prescribed number of consultations with the teaching teacher. The most important condition for completing the course is the documentation of creative (artistic-pedagogical) research arising as a series of individual, consecutive steps under the guidance of the providing teacher. Submission of finished works of art and assessing their quality in the final evaluation is not accepted without that research. For each of these tasks, photographic documentation must be prepared for each teaching unit, as an important part of the pedagogical process in joint presentations or consultations. For the final evaluation, the student submits the required amount - 10 tasks, which were created gradually, as a result of the pedagogical process in ten compulsory exercises. Therefore, it is not possible to combine the set exercises into larger units and thus reduce the prescribed number of consultations with the teaching teacher. The condition for the final evaluation of the course is also the completion and submission of all ten sub-tasks with a minimum grade of "E" - no task can be missing or be graded "FX".
